Thank you for your interest in the role of Trustee of The Pyramid at Anderston. As a registered charity SC048144 (SCIO – Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation), The Pyramid must have a Board of Trustees to be able to operate and fulfil its legal requirements.

Charity Trustees are the people in overall control and management of a charity. They are legally responsible for the charity's governance and strategy, and for making sure that the charity is administered effectively. They must account for its activities and outcomes – usually via the Annual Report of the Trustees.

OSCR (the Scottish Charity Regulator) sets out the duties and responsibilities of charity trustees - <https://www.oscr.org.uk/guidance-and-forms/guidance-and-good-practice-for-charity-trustees/>. It also offers examples of good practice in the governance of charities, which should help charity trustees fulfil their duties and responsibilities.

The Pyramid

The Pyramid is both an organisation and a building. The Pyramid at Anderston SCIO was constituted in 2018. It was formed to benefit the communities of Anderston, Finnieston, Yorkhill and Kelvingrove, as defined by postcode areas G3 7 and G3 8.

Our constitutional purposes are:

To prevent and relieve poverty.

To advance citizenship and community development.

To advance the arts, heritage and culture.

To provide recreational facilities and organise recreational activities for members of the public in order to reduce isolation and to improve well-being and confidence; and to bring together people from different backgrounds. Activities are primarily intended for people who have need of them by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage; and for members of the public.

The SCIO owns and runs the building known as The Pyramid at Anderston, 759 Argyle St, Glasgow G3 8DS on behalf of the community. The iconic B-listed building (formerly Anderston Kelvingrove Church) was bought in 2019 with a grant from the Scottish Government's Scottish Land Fund. Phase 1 of the capital redevelopment of the building was completed in a £1.3 million project which was on site from 2021 – 2023. Further fundraising is underway for the capital redevelopment and renovation of the rest of the building.

The Scottish Government recognised our pandemic work and provided capacity building support funding to allow us to cement our position as a Community Anchor Organisation. This allowed us to appoint our first Chief Officer in 2022. Our core staffing and running costs are currently funded by Glasgow City Council Communities Fund, project funding from a range of funders, and self-generated income. Our ultimate aim is to be a thriving enterprise that is not reliant on funding for core costs.

Our first two staff members were appointed in September 2019. The Pyramid has developed rapidly since then, with over £2 million raised (for capital works, core running costs and a range of projects), the establishment of our community shop, the first phase of capital redevelopment completed, a significant range of community events, activities, projects and support developed and delivered, and the growth of the staff team to a current complement of ten.

We take a rights-based approach to improve the wellbeing of our community, and to protect and improve our environment.

Our vision

Make Anderston Flourish

Our mission

We are an inclusive and inspiring community-led anchor organisation that is central to building wealth and wellbeing.

Our aims and objectives

Improve the wellbeing – health, prosperity, and quality of life – of our community.
Ensure that our community has access to good affordable food, improved outdoor spaces, and a range of support, services, advice, activities, events and opportunities to improve their lives, with a particular focus on those who are marginalised, affected by poverty and/or disadvantage.
Deliver and develop community wealth and capacity building activities to progress local economic regeneration.
Cement our position as a Community Anchor Organisation and play a key role in a thriving, well-connected neighbourhood.
Further grow our membership and number of participants, particularly from under-represented groups.
Protect and improve our environment, including developing and renovating our building and surrounding estate, reducing carbon emissions and improving energy efficiency.

Trustees

Trustees play a vital role in making The Pyramid a success. They are responsible for the strategic direction of the organisation. There are a maximum number of 12 Trustees, with 8 places for Pyramid Members (living in G3 7 or G3 8 postcode area and a current Member) and a further 4 places for Co-opted Trustees, who are invited to join the Board to bring additional skills and experience. Co-opted Trustees don't have to live in G3 7/8.

Trustees are legally responsible for controlling the management and administration of The Pyramid at Anderston as a charity, and for ensuring that our income and property are used for the purposes set out in our Constitution. Trustees have a responsibility to act reasonably and prudently in all matters relating to the charity and in its best interests at all times. The Pyramid aims for Trustees to collectively have the skills and confidence to enable them to do this effectively and participating in training and development is a mandatory requirement of the role.

Trustees are asked to undertake a skills audit which helps to identify collective strengths and where we need more support. As a minimum, Trustees are required to complete Legal and Governance training within six months of joining the Board. Other training is available, and we encourage Trustees to undertake any relevant training and attend events and conferences to support their development. We intend to hold an annual Planning Day with all Trustees and Staff. The Pyramid covers the costs of all training and attendance, as well as any other reasonable expenses incurred.

We ask Trustees to familiarise themselves with our Constitution; to agree to follow and uphold our Code of Conduct and internal policies; and to complete our registration document to confirm they are legally able to be a Trustee in line with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. This means they are not: disqualified from acting as a charity trustee; have an unspent conviction for dishonesty or an offence under the 2005 Act; an undischarged bankrupt or with a Protected Trust Deed to pay off debts with creditors; removed under either Scottish or English Law from being a charity trustee; or disqualified from being a company director.

Changes to charitable law, the Charities (Regulation and Administration) (Scotland) Act 2023, will be implemented from April 2024 through to Summer 2025. More information is available from OSCR - <https://www.oscr.org.uk/about-charities/charity-law/changes-to-charity-law-after-the-charities-regulation-and-administration-scotland-act-2023/>

The range of offences and situations that result in automatic disqualification of charity trustees will be extended to include offences such as being convicted under bribery or proceeds of crime legislation, association with terrorist groups or sexual offences. The criteria for disqualification will also be extended to apply to those who are in senior management positions within a charity.

Potential new Trustees should consider the question of possible conflicts of interest. This is particularly important where personal interests may be significant enough to make it difficult for the individual concerned to make a full and rounded contribution to Trustee discussions and decisions. Please let us know if you would like to discuss this, or anything else, further.

Although the role of Trustee is a serious undertaking, it is an exciting time to join us, with lots of projects and activities, as well as the ongoing development of our wonderful building and the chance to contribute to our development and the community we serve. We hope that Trustees will find the role enjoyable and rewarding.

Our Trustee Code of Conduct and Zero Tolerance Policy are at the end of this document.
